

What will I get?

So you're interested in coming on the National Arts Fundraising School and joining our elite Alumni of arts fundraisers at the top of their game... fantastic, we'd love to see you there. But just in case you need further convincing, here are 10 things you'll personally get from the School:

1 six days of intense learning

access to the UK's largest fundraising library

2

3 the chance to meet 25 other bright, committed, passionate people and share ideas

4 a range of resources from tax info to model policies – on a data stick quality time with 4 of the UK's leading fundraising experts

5

the chance to reflect on and analyse your own situation

7 a workbook with 350+ pages of insights, inspiration and practical ideas

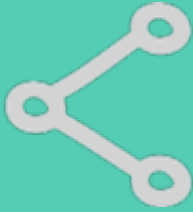

8 access to a unique alumni network and ongoing training opportunities

our unique 'share and compare' session that helps you look at best practice over 15 different sessions on every aspect of fundraising
